

The Fig Tree

47. Minute

IVAR

Scherzando $\text{♩} = \text{c. } 80-100$

Soprano

Alto

Tenor

Bass

p

nit - ty - grit - ty wil - ly - nil - ly wet wood wile wa - ter nol - ly wool - ly wig wil - low wide ball

p

ge du ba du ge du ba du ge du ba du ge du ba

p

O

5

S

A

T

B

p

Is the wa - ter for swim - ming

hil - ly bil - ly wig - gle whale would woo way - lay or is it al - lowed to du ge du ba du ge du ba

p

The fish asked

8

S

A

T

B

mf

on - ly on - ly,

drink it as well as well? ge du ba du ge du ba du mp or is it al - lowed to drink it? mf nit - ty - grit - ty wil - ly - nil - ly wet wood wile wa - ter

mf the in - ten - dant p O

11

S

A

T

B

ge du ba du ge du ba du ge du ba du ge du ba nol-ly wool-ly wig wil-low wide ball hil-ly bil-ly wig-gle whale would woo way-lay

15

S

A

T

B

You may swim ev-ery-where ev-ery-where,

you may eat ev-ery-thing ev-ery-thing,

and you may drink all the wa-ter.

The fish-er-man kind-ly an-swered

17

S

A

T

B

Oh dear-y sun-ny Sun-day! My mud-dy moat!

plau - - - dit plau - - - dit plau - - -

plau - - - dit plau - - - dit plau - - -

plau - - - dit plau - - - dit plau - - -

20 (non rit.)

S
He re - al - ly be - lieved _____ I was a fish.

A
dit plau - - - - dit plau - - - - dit plau

T
dit plau - - - - dit plau - - - - dit plau

B
dit plau - - - - dit plau - - - - dit plau

The fish asked the intendant:
 “Is the water for swimming only,
 or is it allowed to drink it as well?”

The fisherman kindly answered:
 “You may swim everywhere,
 you may eat everything,
 and you may drink all the water.”

Oh deary sunny Sunday!
 My muddy moat!
 He really believed I was a fish.

IVAR